

Central California Workforce Collaborative

The Central California Workforce Collaborative (CCWC) is comprised of nine (-9-) local Workforce Investment Boards representing the fourteen (-14-) counties of Amador, Calaveras, Fresno, Inyo, Kern, Kings, Madera, Mariposa, Merced, Mono, San Joaquin, Stanislaus, Tulare, and Tuolumne. LWIBs in the CCWC include:

- Fresno Regional Workforce Investment Board
- Kern/Inyo/Mono Workforce Investment Board
- Kings County Job Training Office
- Madera Workforce Investment Board
- Merced Workforce Investment Board
- Motherlode Workforce Investment Board
- San Joaquin Workforce Investment Board
- Stanislaus Workforce & Economic Development Alliance
- Tulare County Workforce Investment Board

Central California Workforce Collaborative

Grants

- California Workforce Investment Board “Slingshot” Planning Grant
- Prop. 39 Pre-Apprenticeship Support, Training & Placement Grant
- “Back-to-Work” National Emergency Grant
- California Additional Assistance Grant to fund multi-craft, pre-apprentice training for public infrastructure projects
- Promotores Training Grant supporting the Community Health Worker Training Program at California State University, Fresno

Central California Workforce Collaborative

Additional Partners and Projects

- Continued collaboration with California Central Valley Economic Development Corporations
- Collaboration with California Community Colleges Central Region Consortium
- CCWC and its partners maintain the Central California Workforce Readiness Certificate
- Multiple CCWC WIBs utilize the business tracking system Executive Pulse